

VA BCoS & ARMI Symposium at TERMIS Global Conference

Biofabrication as a Method for Development and Implementation of Clinically Useful Products

Call for abstracts

The VA Biofabrication Community of Science (BCoS) and the Advanced Regenerative Manufacturing Institute (ARMI) | BioFabUSA are happy to announce their joint Biofabrication session at the TERMIS Global Conference 2024 – apply now!

The session titled Biofabrication as a Method for Development and Implementation of Clinically Useful Products will be celebrated at the upcoming TERMIS Global Conference in Seattle WA on June 25-28, 2024, and will be organized around 1 invited speaker and 4 oral presentations from submitted abstracts.

Last call for abstracts

January 15, 2024

Authors notification

February - March 2024

Congress registration

February - June 2024

TERMIS conference

June 25-28, 2024, Seattle

The goal of the session is to showcase tissue-engineered product development and clinical applications within healthcare systems adopting Biofabrication for the customized restoration of a patient's health – learn more!

Contact us at vhabiofabricationcos@va.gov | info@armiusa.org

U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs

VHA Innovation Ecosystem

Advanced Regenerative Manufacturing Institute

